Highlights from the month

following reports of a fire. Due to access difficulties, the fire crew were unable to reach the location using their vehicle. In a great example of partnership working, local police officers transported firefighters to the scene in the back of a police vehicle, enabling them to quickly reach and deal with the fire.

Local officers are continuing to tackle vehicle-related anti-social behaviour across the area, using new Section 59 powers to address irresponsible and nuisance driving.
Recently, officers took action against a motorcyclist who was seen riding on a cycle lane, putting pedestrians and cyclists at risk. The rider was spoken to and dealt with under Section 59 legislation.

Public who reported seeing what they believed to be a stolen motorbike in the area. Acting on the information provided, PCSO quickly attended the location and found individuals with the motorbike. On seeing the officer, the individuals ran from the scene, leaving the motorbike behind. Reported Stolen
