New Police Commander for North West Leicestershire

“I’m looking forward to engaging and working with the community and helping to make a difference in the area”

Meet North West Leicestershire’s new Neighbourhood Policing Area Commander – Inspector Wayne Nimblette.

With 21 years of service, Inspector Nimblette has worked in a variety of policing roles including as a police Constable and Sergeant working in Response; in Neighbourhood Policing; and as an Operational Inspector. The past nine months has seen him carry out the role as staff officer to the Chief Constable.

Speaking about his new role, Inspector Nimblette said: “I’m looking forward to the new challenge, to engaging with people in the community, and to helping to keep the area a safe place to live, work and enjoy”.

“I’m excited to get working with the brilliant neighbourhood teams and to help continue the great work which has been and is being done”.

“I have also met with members of the Community Safety Partnership, and look forward to my continued work with them to help to keep making a difference in the North West Leicestershire area.”

He said: "The past year has flown by and I have been incredibly privileged to work alongside a team of officers, police staff and partners who have worked tirelessly to keep North West Leicestershire safe, often in very difficult circumstances".

"My successor, Inspector Wayne Nimblette, joins the team with a wealth of experience across a broad range of policing areas. I know that I am leaving North West Leicestershire in very safe hands."
