Welcome PCSO 6027 Garrard to the Aylestone Beat team

Hello! I am PCSO Kayleigh Garrard, I am new to the Aylestone Beat team and within the last month of starting, I have been in-company with a tutor to get to know the community. I have dealt with a range of incidents already and have had great outcomes for incidents relating to vehicle crime and anti-social behaviour.

I am looking forward to getting to know people in my area and working with the team to tackle any issues the community may face. I will work to build strong relationships, be an approachable presence and give my best efforts to support the public.

Positive Result person arrested trying car doors and found with bladed article

A call from a member of public reporting a suspicious male trying car doors led to police officers responding to the location. The suspect ran away from the police officers but with swift action, the suspect was caught and they were found in possession of a knife.

This was a great result and we hope this has increased public confidence in calling the police and it just goes to show how important it is to report suspicious behaviour to the police,
